

Least Restrictive Environment (LRE)

What Does It Mean? How Is It Identified? What Is The “LRE” For My Child?

Presenter: Stephanie Bellantoni, Hudson Valley Special Education Parent Center

This presentation will help parents develop a better understanding of the Least Restrictive Environment (LRE) requirement of the federal and state Special Education laws. Participants will be introduced to the New York State regulations and policies governing the Committee on Special Education’s determination of appropriate placement for students with Individualized Education Programs (IEPs). Further, the group will role play as Committee on Special Education members to explore LRE.

Where: Osborn School
Osborn Road, Rye, NY

When: Thursday, April 19th at 9:15 am

PLEASE RSVP to ljjcpp@aol.com

Stephanie Bellantoni has a background in law, and is the parent of four children, one of which has a significant disability. She is a strong proponent for an inclusive culture. Stephanie is a Parent Member for her school district, and has participated in many CSE and CPSE meetings over the years.
