

PHOTOS BY JASON GREEN

Hudson River Museum

The Neo-Victorians Opening Party, Yonkers

The Hudson River Museum celebrated the opening of The Neo-Victorians: Contemporary Artists Revive Gilded-Age Glamour at a special reception Thursday, February 8. Members, trustees, friends, and featured artists from near and far were in attendance. Top: Masha Turchinsky, HRM director; Dave Steck, featured filmmaker; Anna Birritella, events director, YoFiFest; and Patty Schuman, cofounder, YoFiFest. Inset: Aimi Latore; Ebony Bolt, teaching artist-in-residence; and Justina Kofie.

PHOTO BY MARGARET FOX

ArtsWestchester

Arts Alive Grant Presentation, White Plains

On January 26, notable dignitaries and business leaders joined ArtsWestchester's Board of Trustees for a private breakfast to present Arts Alive grants to 35 Westchester County organizations and artists. Pictured: New York State Assemblyman David Buchwald; Yoko Battista, representing the Organization of Chinese Americans (OCA) Asian Pacific American Advocates; Mayor Tom Roach of White Plains.

PHOTO COURTESY OF TEATOWN

Teatown

Annual EagleFest Celebration, Croton-on-Hudson

On February 10, environmental-education organization Teatown presented the 14th Annual EagleFest celebration in Croton Point Park. An estimated 2,500 avian enthusiasts enjoyed a full day of birdwatching, children's activities, food trucks, and a special performance by singer-songwriter Dar Williams. Pictured: Town Supervisor Dana Levenberg of Ossining; Terrence Murphy, New York state senator; Kevin Carter, Teatown executive director; Mayor Brian Pugh of Croton-on-Hudson.

PHOTO COURTESY OF FOOD BANK OF WESTCHESTER

Food Bank for Westchester

Award Presentation, Elmsford

Food Bank for Westchester has been awarded a $10,000 grant from the KeyBank Foundation to help fight hunger in Westchester County. The award will provide 23,800 nutritious meals to hungry Westchester children, families, and seniors. Pictured: Tamar Jacobson, senior manager of Corporate Engagement and Events, Food Bank for Westchester; Joe Markey, KeyBank market president; Rodney Bolden, KeyBank Key@Work relationship manager; and Karen Crane, KeyBank senior communications manager.

Westchester Institute for Human Development

Longevity Award Presentation, Valhalla

The Westchester Institute for Human Development (WIHD) recently honored COO David O'Hara for his 30-year tenure at the organization. Dr. Susan Fox, president & CEO of WIHD, presented him with a longevity award at a reception held February 6. Pictured: Dr. David O'Hara and Dr. Susan Fox.

PHOTO COURTESY OF THOMPSON & BENDER