

PHOTO BY DAVID WHOIE

Music & Miles: Changing Minds

Living Proof benefit concert,
Chappaqua

On Saturday, March 10th, at the Chappaqua Performing Arts Center, Living Proof — an evening of multi-arts performances in memory of Miles Applebaum of Armonk — raised money to support The Mental Health Association of Westchester (MHA) and for a music-scholarship fund to Lagond Music School. Top: Rosanne Lana, executive director of Lagond Music School; Charlotte Ostman, CEO of MHA; Shari Applebaum, suicide bereavement specialist at MHA. Inset: scholarship recipients Liam Kharem and Audrey Pretnar.

PHOTO BY DANA ASHER

UJA Federation of New York

Westchester Government Relations Legislative Breakfast,
White Plains

UJA-Federation of New York in Westchester and Westchester Jewish Council hosted the annual Westchester Government Relations Legislative Breakfast on Friday, March 16, at Temple Israel Center in White Plains. County Executive George Latimer addressed more than 200 guests about the direction of the county. Pictured: Cindy Golub, UJA-Federation of New York's Westchester regional chair; Karen Everett, UJA-Federation's government relations vice-chair; George Latimer.

PHOTO COURTESY OF THOMPSON & BENDER

Business Council of Westchester (BCW)

KeyBank Speaker Series, Tarrytown

The BCW brought together a panel of experts to discuss the implications of new federal tax laws at its KeyBank Speakers Series on February 14 at Tarrytown's Tappan Hill. Keynote speaker Edmund J. McMahon moderated a panel of experts representing different business sectors likely to be affected by new deductibility limits on State and Local Taxes (SALT) and other changes to the tax law. Pictured: Marsha Gordon, president and CEO of BCW; Edmund J. McMahon, founder and research director of the Empire Center for Public Policy; Joseph Rand, chief creative officer, Better Homes and Gardens Real Estate | Rand Realty; Mark R. Baran, JD, LL.M., principal, Tax Practice, Marks Paneth; Alana Sweeny, president and CEO of UnitedWay Westchester and Putnam.

PHOTO COURTESY OF SHOPRITE

ShopRite Partners in Caring

Cheerios Contest Box Unveiling, Yonkers

ShopRite stores in five Westchester locations won prize money to support local food banks in a contest sponsored by ShopRite and General Mills. Selected store associates will be pictured on special-edition Cheerios boxes, unveiled on March 13. Pictured: ShopRite Greenway Plaza contest winners Natasha Kee and Janelis Cruz.

PHOTO COURTESY OF THOMPSON & BENDER

Westchester Institute for Human Development (WIHD)

New York State Dental Foundation (NYSDF) Awards, Valhalla

WIHD's Dental Services program for people with disabilities received two awards from the NYSDF's Give Kids a Smile program. On February 27, NYSDF granted WIHD $5,000 and a portable NOMAD X-ray unit. Pictured: Dr. Carl Tegtmeyer, board member of NYSDF; Laura Clark Leon, executive director of NYSDF; Dr. Susan Fox, president and CEO of WIHD; Pat Seagriff, dental director of WIHD.