

WIHD holds inaugural gala

The Westchester Institute for Human Development has announced its inaugural gala, An Evening of Inspiration, to take place April 26. The evening will honor five individuals who have made significant contributions to WIHD's mission of improving the lives of people with disabilities. The honorees include Dr. Baldev Singh; Wendy Breitner and Ken Kirschenbaum; and Helene and Kenneth Orce. News 12 Westchester/Hudson Valley's Tara Rosenblum will act as emcee for the evening.

"We are thrilled to be hosting our first-ever gala, which will be a truly inspirational evening," Dr. Susan Fox, president and CEO of WIHD, said. "Our honorees have made a huge impact in helping advance the work we do for individuals with developmental disabilities and vulnerable children."

The gala will be held at the Scarsdale Golf Club at Club Way in Hartsdale. For more information and to purchase tickets or tables, visit wihd.org.
