“What’s Next?” Parent Q&A Series Virtual Transition Planning and Services

Focus: Independent Living Skills

Join us for a brief discussion facilitated by CSN staff, on how families of youth with disabilities can address transition planning for life after high school with their school teams, while students are being educated through remote learning.

This session will provide suggestions for virtual transition activities to help students meet their measurable postsecondary goals for independent living, as well as an opportunity to share additional ideas. Participants are encouraged to come with questions and leave with answers to “what’s next” in their young adults’ transition to adulthood.

The Community Support Network (CSN) at Westchester Institute for Human Development is the Hudson Valley’s resource for individuals with disabilities, their families, and the professionals supporting them.

Our experts are knowledgeable about all the disability systems serving individuals with disabilities across the lifespan and are available to help YOU.

We provide resources, training, direct services, and support and guidance to families, schools, agencies, and individuals themselves on disability related issues and topics.
