

Transition Planning: Work Skills Featuring: Yes She Can, Inc

A job skills training program for women diagnosed with autism and/or other social/learning/behavioral differences

Join CSN and featured speaker Lesli Cattan of Yes She Can in a discussion about the critical job skills needed that lead to successful employment. Discussion about how to support those skills during the transition planning process and how Yes She Can provides an intensive and immersive experience for participants to learn and refine those skills. Parents and current students or those who have recently exited school interested in acquiring job skills are welcomed to attend.

Wednesday, March 17, 2021

4:00 pm to 5:30 pm

This workshop will be held via ZOOM

Space is be limited. Register today!

Registration Link

<https://zoom.us/meeting/register/tJ0qceqsrl8vEtclgNKFsiU5jczwHb9UIFdo>

Presented by Lesli Cattan, Yes She Can, Inc.

Lesli Cattan, LCSW, is Director of Training Programs, and leads a team of extraordinary professionals who work with trainees in dyads and larger groups focusing on a range of employment, social skills, soft skills and behavior regulation necessary for work.

Questions? Email: csn@wihd.org

The Community Support Network (CSN) at Westchester Institute for Human Development is the Hudson Valley's resource for individuals with disabilities, their families, and the professionals supporting them. Our experts are knowledgeable about all of the disability systems serving individuals with disabilities across the lifespan and are available to help YOU. We provide resources, training, direct services, support and guidance to families, schools, agencies, and individuals themselves on disability related issues and topics.

See our monthly calendar of events at: www.wihd.org/events