

Tapping Into Our Community: Resources for School-Age and Transitioning Youth with Disabilities in the Mid-Hudson Valley

Wednesday, June 2, 2021
6:00-7:30pm
Via ZOOM

Looking for ways to get your student engaged in the community and socializing with others in a healthy and positive way?

Join us for an evening of information sharing. Representatives and volunteers from local organizations will offer information about available activities, events, and services geared toward school-age and transitioning youth with disabilities. You'll learn about local social skills groups, camps, sports leagues, school-to-work programs, music classes, and more. Participants will also have the opportunity to share any resources that they may have. A handout listing the resources will be provided.
