

The Center for Career Freedom

Nonprofit organization

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- As a New York State Licensed Business School and a 501(c)(3) charity with a mission of self-sufficiency for persons with disabilities, we believe acquiring job skills that employers want is critical to getting and keeping a good job.
- To insure our students and instructors are aligned with the evolving job skill demands of the marketplace, the Center is fortunate to have parents, providers, educators and talented Corporate leaders to guide us.
- The Center has assisted over 4,000 persons with disabilities to train for today's workforce.

About Us

The Center for Career Freedom offers eligible students free learning and certifications in the skills that matter.

NO LOANS OR SCHOOL EXPENSES

- Your tuition is paid for by either ACCES-VR, DOL One Stop, DSS or CSS.
- We see our role as a partner; to assist our members in their recovery at their request and at their pace.

ATTEND ON DAYS AND HOURS CONVENIENT

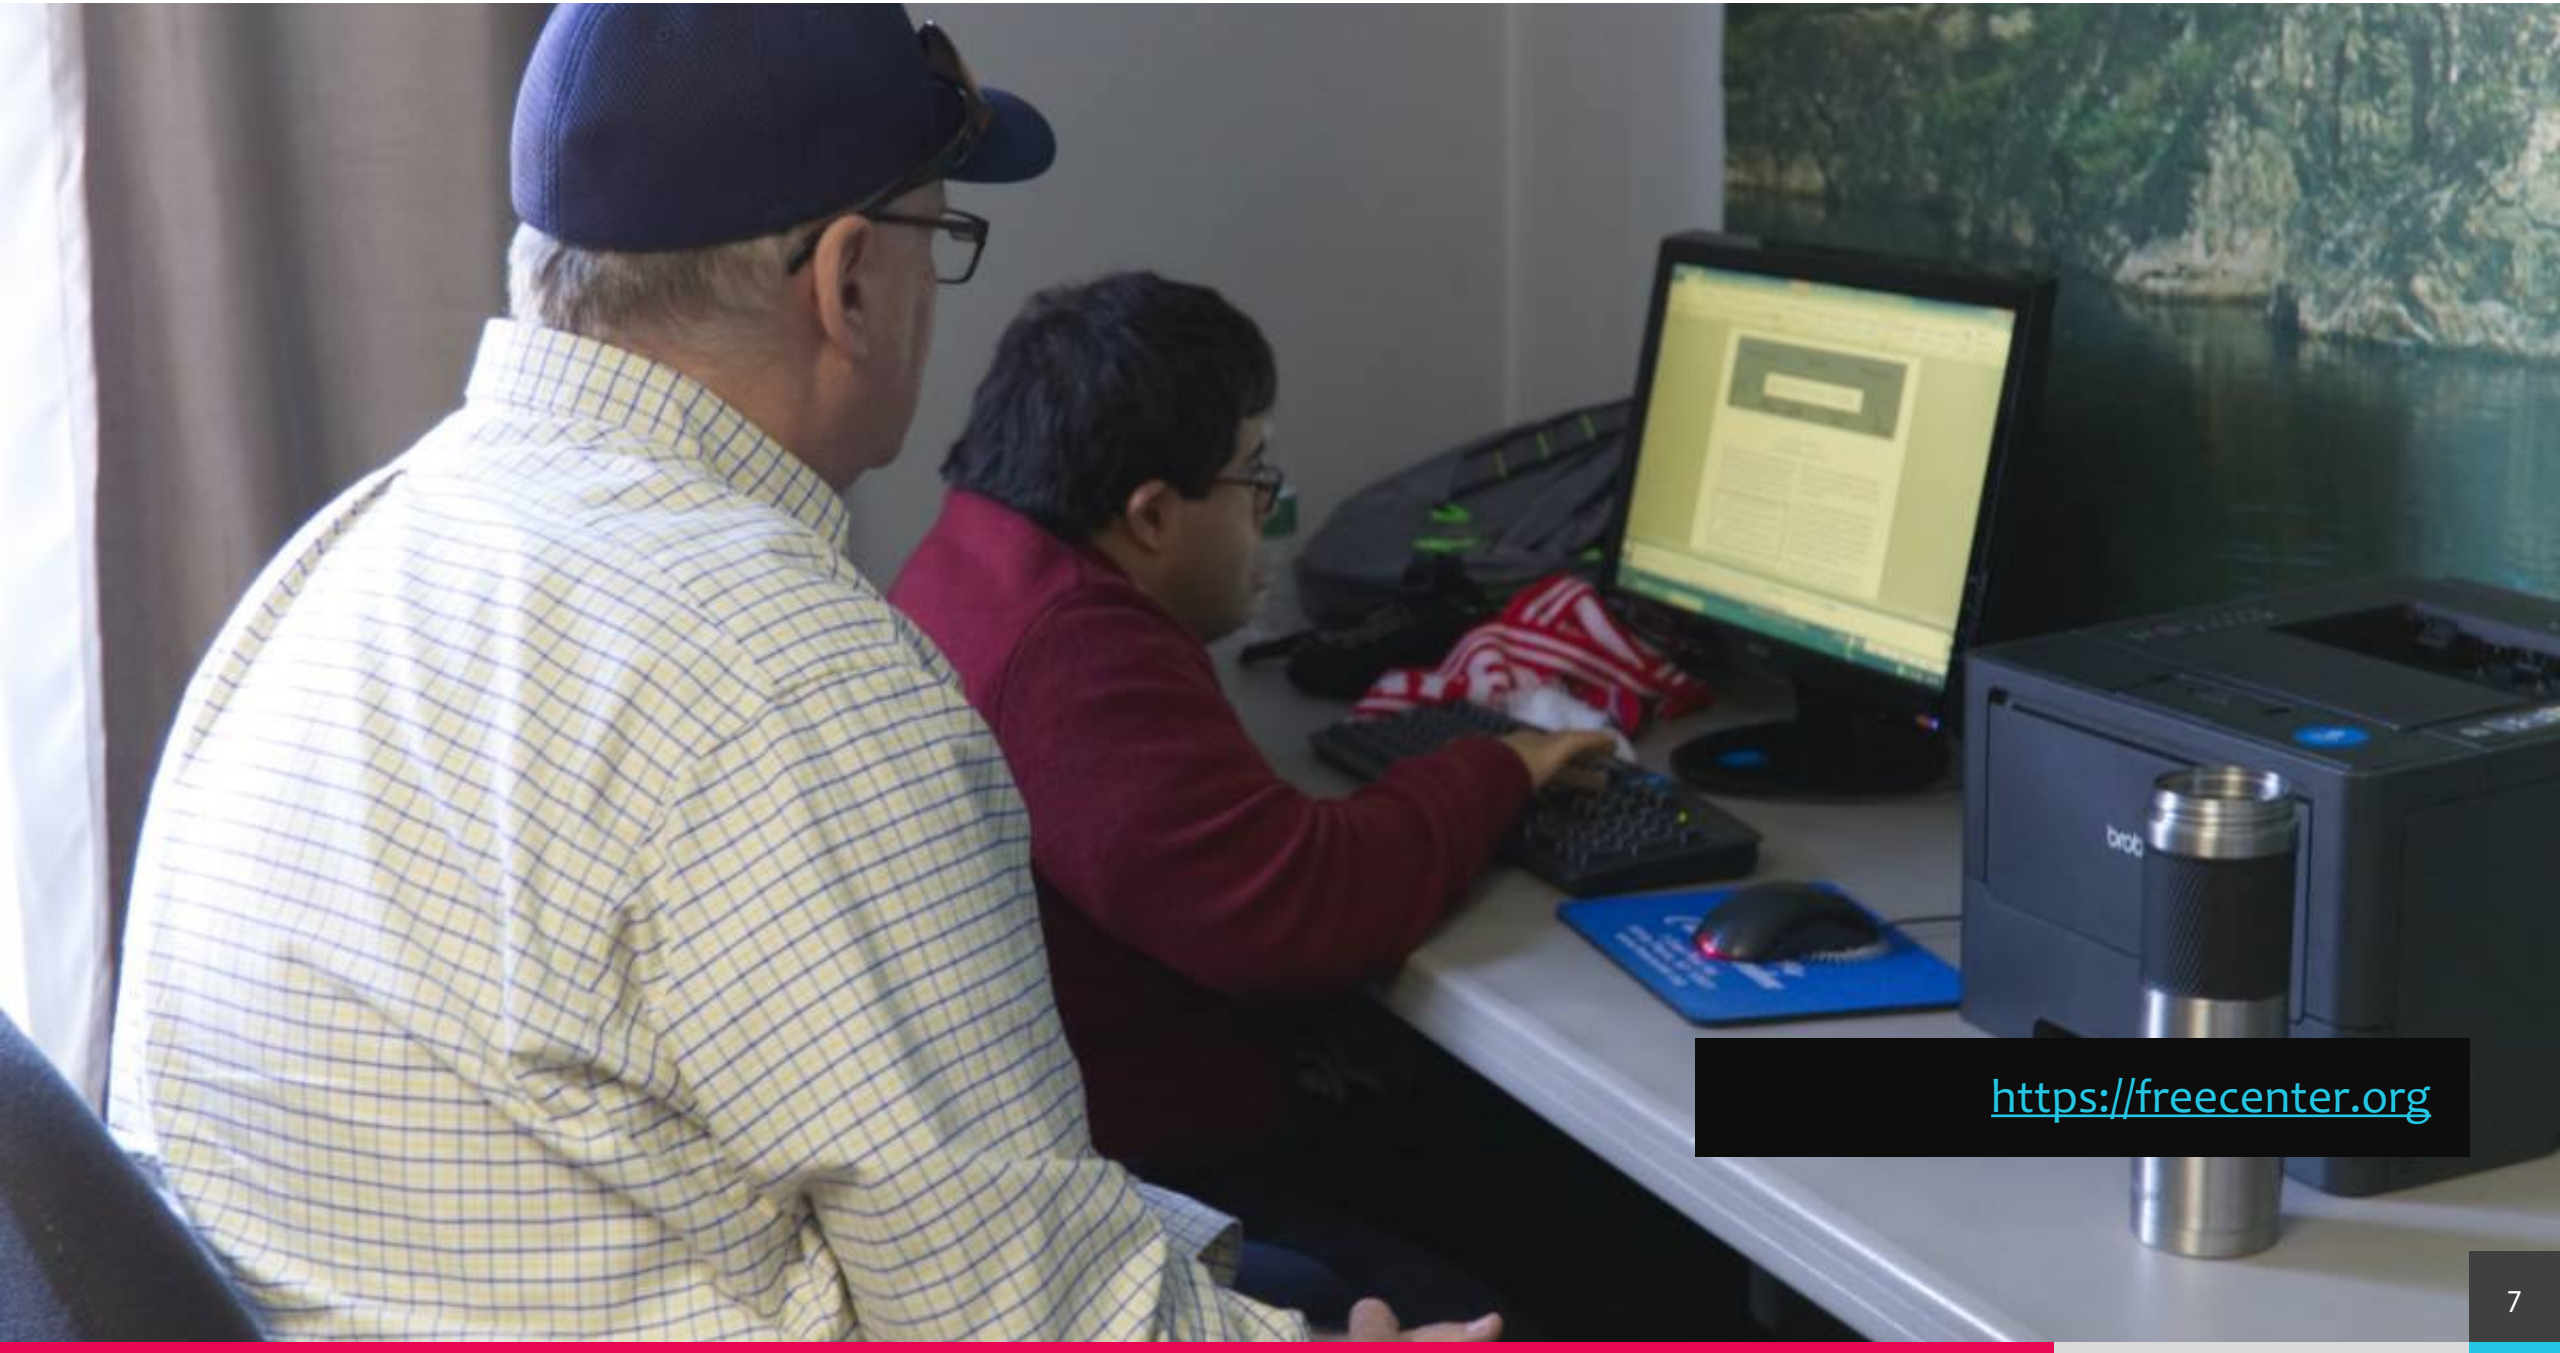

- You will learn just the job skills employers are looking for.
- We will help you apply.

A photograph of two women sitting at a desk in an office. The woman on the left has long dark hair and is wearing a grey top and blue pants. The woman on the right is wearing a black jacket and is holding a piece of paper. They are both smiling at the camera. In the background, there are computer monitors and a window with curtains.

All our staff have extensive experience in business, as well as counseling and teaching.

Our way of instruction is very different from the way you learned in high school or college.
