01:16:52 Dan Habib: What worked for kelsey? How did the school support her?

01:17:21 Jacob Rivas FCSN: Thanks for using film to tell these stories Dan. I was about to plug for you, everyone feel free to check out
<https://likerightnowfilms.com/productions/details/3355/Who-Cares-About-Kelsey> I'd never seen this platform before, incredible platform

01:17:28 Lisa Cohen: seemed like a person showing caring and an interest helped her

01:17:43 Yvette Goorevitch: It takes one person

01:17:45 Laura Stumacher: I think that learning to ask for help was vital

01:17:50 Laura Labriola: adding her to head up the pep meeting

01:17:50 Janine Belfast: They set goals for her.

01:17:52 Janice-Steven Vincenzo: They didn't give up on her, met with her regularly to help her meet her goal of graduation.

01:17:53 Carin Horowitz: Being included in her meetings

01:18:03 Laura Labriola: iep

01:18:15 Capitelli, Nina: The school stepped in to figure out what type of program would work for her-Individualized

01:18:20 Lisa Cohen: Listening to her, the person centered meetings

01:18:39 Stanley Habib: lost audio

01:18:44 Laura Labriola: me too

01:18:50 Tech Support: It's back

01:19:06 Janine Belfast: yes, she set goals with their support

01:19:08 Janice-Steven Vincenzo: They heard her when she said she no longer wanted to take medication and didn't judge her for that.

01:19:11 ISS Family Liaison: focusing on her strengths and interests

01:19:13 Jennifer Green: Person Centered Planning is so important!

01:20:07 Jennifer Green: I have not seen this done in school districts and would like to start doing this

01:20:16 Yvette Goorevitch: CSN will partner to support districts to train staff in person centered planning

01:20:16 Joyce Hawk: Identifying her current progress toward attainment of a diploma, supporting her ability to ask for help, peer support

01:20:48 Kirsten Sanchirico: Person Centered Planning is the key to any transition

01:21:10 Yvette Goorevitch: CSN will support districts with PD to develop capacity for person centered planning

01:21:34 Laura Labriola: what is CSN?

01:29:12 Yvette Goorevitch: Join us on Thursday at 7 pm for a discussion on Project SEARCH

01:29:45 Dan Habib: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=O9jMgbLo_m0&feature=emb_title

01:29:49 Tech Support: You can mute this and click through the link Dan is sharing

01:29:54 Tech Support: And thanks Dan, great solution!

01:31:52 Naomi Brickel: We are excited to be developing a Project SEARCH school to employment transition program at NY Pres/Lawrence Hospital in Bronxville. We still have some openings for September for students who will be in their last year of HS!

01:32:21 Yvette Goorevitch: Unified Sports changes lives - the lives of the allies and the lives of the self advocates

01:32:38 The Schutz Company: I'm not able to copy links from the chat. If anyone has any suggestions? Probably on my end.

01:32:59 Kelly Baldrate: Is there a "unified sports" website — not aware of any local to me in Illinois

01:33:02 Yvette Goorevitch: Join us on Thursday at 7 pm to learn more about SEARCH

01:33:10 Lisa Cohen: the inclusion here is so beneficial, for every member of the team

01:33:37 Tech Support: You can go to you tube and search Dan Habib Garrett Shows I'm in Charge

01:33:43 Tech Support: Should come up

01:33:48 Yvette Goorevitch: Unified Sports was part of Special Olympics and the Association of Coaches has taken the leadership role

01:33:55 Kirsten Sanchirico: NY Disability Champions Network is a group started by Ketrina Hazzel a woman with lived experience creating a mentor program for people transitioning from HS to College and beyond. She will be presenting this evening at 7 pm

01:34:59 Laura Labriola: My son joined the football team this year and it was amazing- the coach arranged for him to get a “touchdown” at every game - it was so inspiring for everyone - even the opposing team

01:35:37 Naomi Brickel: So good for everyone!

01:36:24 Dan Habib: What are people seeing so far about the elements in Garrett’s life - in and out of school - that are supporting his transition?

01:36:47 Yvette Goorevitch: Expectations are high

01:37:09 Joyce Hawk: Pairing up with a peer partner in sports

01:37:10 Jacob Rivas FCSN: His family takes the time to understand and support his strengths

01:37:15 Lisa Cohen: It looks like his home environment is filled with high expectations as well as school life

01:37:41 Lisa Cohen: Also it looks like he has been taught excellent strategies to manage his emotions which has served him well in school

01:37:52 Beth Solferino: Inclusion in school environment, work environment and community

01:38:14 Yvette Goorevitch: Great workplace expectations

01:38:30 Naomi Brickel: Presumed competence

01:38:55 Yvette Goorevitch: Go Garrett

01:39:05 Lisa Cohen: This child has a positive self esteem, he doesn't look like his disability keeps him from trying at all

01:39:10 Dan Habib: Great observations so far, keep them coming!

01:39:10 Joyce Hawk: Intention to have a positive attitude and acknowledging there may be bumps along the way

01:39:16 Yvette Goorevitch: Student directed IEP meetings

01:40:01 Federation for Children with Special Needs: LOVE to see his self directed IEP meeting!

01:40:01 Laura Labriola: i love him presenting his own strengths and weaknesses - to make him aware

01:40:10 Lisa Cohen: He possesses self advocacy skills

01:40:22 Jacob Rivas FCSN: Seems like he's either taught or intrinsically believes that he has the power to accomplish

01:40:32 Karen Millman: Being able to speak about his strengths and weaknesses is so important for self-determination

01:40:38 Dan Habib: If you have specific questions you want me to address towards the end of this session, please put them in the Q&A area of the main navigation bar in zoom.

01:40:54 Joyce Hawk: Knowing his strengths and challenges and being able to tell others, willingness to accept suggestions/support

01:41:11 Lisa Cohen: person centered approach at school and home

01:41:38 Brendan Klein: this is very interesting

01:42:18 Yvette Goorevitch: Intern mentor relationships are critical

01:42:25 Yvette Goorevitch: For everyone

01:43:24 Christina Feal: Unified sports has been amazing for both my students with disabilities and the school community. As the teacher it really helped my students make the connections and allowed them to learn from their peers

01:43:35 The Schutz Company: The level of inclusion is wonderful. Clear expectations.

01:44:05 Kirsten Sanchirico: every school should use person centered planning for all students

01:44:13 Janice-Steven Vincenzo: I am in complete awe of Garret and the supports that he has in place. This is what it should be all about!

01:44:47 Jacob Rivas FCSN: label me a new Yorker is very funny

01:44:47 Yvette Goorevitch: Label jars! Not people

01:45:01 Karen Millman: Labels can be very limiting!

01:45:10 Lisa Cohen: The parents are incredible and their support and advocacy surely has contributed to Garretts confidence and overall success

01:45:52 Renee Agostino: The film clips are really eye opening, thank you for sharing!

01:46:21 Jacob Rivas FCSN: In case Dan doesn't plug this: <https://likerightnowfilms.com/>

01:46:26 Jacob Rivas FCSN: incredible work

01:46:28 Tech Support: We know it's 10:30am, we will extend this session until 10:40am

01:46:29 Karen Millman: His parents and school have done an amazing job in that he is not afraid to be himself. How great!!!

01:46:42 Janice-Steven Vincenzo: Wow!!! Thank you- I can't wait to show these films to my daughter and then our community.

01:46:42 Tech Support: We'll make sure everyone has time to stretch your legs and join the 11am breakouts, thanks!

01:46:51 Lucille Rossi, CSN WIHD: If you have to go - Also, this is the link to the Evaluation. Please complete as it will really help us. <https://forms.gle/7pt2ujwXpihdeDpbA>

01:49:40 Tech Support: Reminder: When you leave this session, navigate back to the Zoom Events Lobby to view your choices for 11am

01:50:14 Tech Support: You have 7 breakouts to choose from, and all will be recorded and available on our website next week

01:50:33 Naomi Brickel: Please be sure to fill out the evaluation that Lucille posted!

01:50:59 Tina Dierna: Kingston High School, Transition Coordinator HERE!!!

01:51:09 Tina Dierna: I would love to see our program grow MORE!

01:51:22 Laura Stumacher: Mentorship

01:51:27 Janice-Steven Vincenzo: I would love to share your films with my school district. We are so behind and transition doesn't look anything like what I am seeing today.

01:51:30 Yvette Goorevitch: Please remember to complete the keynote evaluation

01:51:36 Laura Labriola: I would love to have a screening of your films at our school/community in Rye and maybe we can invite you Dan or better yet your son - to host us. These films are so inspiring

01:51:39 Jack Costello: Person Centered Planning/Student led IEP meetings. My students attend and participate but don't lead. It would be great to move them there.

01:51:44 Lucille Rossi, CSN WIHD: More work experiences!

01:51:46 Family Rittger: Will we have access to this recorded session? I think my teen would find this helpful.

01:51:46 Jacob Rivas FCSN: I'd like to learn more about how to encourage parents to have the best possible expectations, it made a difference for Garrett - and also how to encourage folks to find their goal (for Garret, that's UNH it seems)

01:51:57 Joyce Hawk: Promote the idea of presuming competence!

01:52:01 Tech Support: Yes the session will be recorded and available on our website next week

01:52:10 Dan Habib: Transition Educational Materials:

01:52:13 Tech Support: Please also consider sharing the YouTube links Dan shared so you can view his trailers

01:52:14 The Schutz Company: Transition coordinator at Irvington School District. Would love to see WIHD working directly with our school

01:52:19 Yvette Goorevitch: Jacob, contact us at CSN to see how we can assist

01:52:21 Kelly Baldrate: Find out whether Illinois has a non-diploma track and try to make sure my kid stays off it

01:52:24 Naomi Brickel: The recordings will be uploaded within a few days to the conference website

01:52:37 Kelly Baldrate: Also beef up my child's participation in his upcoming IEP

01:52:48 Tech Support: There are several of Dan's materials on our website already under this session:

01:52:49 Karen Millman: Seeking opportunities in the school for meaningful internships like was done for Garrett

01:52:51 Jacob Rivas FCSN: Yvette, what is CSN?

01:52:57 Janice-Steven Vincenzo: Oh my goodness- thank you for putting this all together and for sharing! I have lots of homework to do!

01:53:06 Anne Marie MCDONOUGH: empower my child to participate / lead IEP meeting plus inviting in the future vocational people

01:53:09 Jacob Rivas FCSN: I'm at FCSN, so, we're almost there in terms of acronyms already

01:53:09 Tech Support: <https://www.wihd.org/what-we-do/community-support-network/our-events/community-support-network-2021-22-virtual-transition-institute/>

01:53:14 Dan Habib: Transition Educational Materials:

01:53:27 Naomi Brickel: For more information about how WIHD's Community Support Network (CSN) can help please email me at nbrickel@wihd.org

01:53:33 Yvette Goorevitch: School Districts interested in learning more about partnerships with CSN can contact me at YGoorevitch@wihd.org or Nbrickel@wihd.org

01:53:45 ella Ng: would have loved to see the unified basketball continued at our school. my sons participated for 1 year and loved it

01:53:49 ISS Family Liaison: Would like to see continuity with school districts throughout NY for supports and transition education for families. So many different experiences depending on location for a student.

01:53:59 Jacob Rivas FCSN: Thank you for your work Dan, incredible materials and film.

01:54:35 Lucille Rossi, CSN WIHD: Thank you all for attending. Please complete this evaluation - it really helps us in planning - <https://forms.gle/7pt2ujwXpihdeDpbA>

01:54:49 Naomi Brickel: Dan, your films inspire people to make transition more effective! Thank you!

01:55:00 Yvette Goorevitch: IEP meetings should be a process not an event!!!

01:55:25 Kim Tucker: Its a shame there is not enough support in public schools and training - so many kids need to be referred to residential or day - and not enough schools to available for those kids. Huge issue. They really need to fix the public school system in general, along with oversight and consequences for the schools

01:55:54 Dan Habib: <https://www.wihd.org/what-we-do/inclusive-communities-2/>

01:56:12 Dan Habib: <https://likerightnowfilms.com/>

01:56:45 Yvette Goorevitch: Great for staff meetings and SEPTA meetings

01:56:46 Karen Millman: Thank you Dan. You have provided so, so much great information here and amazing films you produced to illustrate your messages re transition and inclusion best practices.

01:56:53 ella Ng: thank you Dan

01:56:54 Capitelli, Nina: Thank you so much!

01:56:55 Kirsten Sanchirico: awesome work Dan

01:57:02 Lucille Rossi, CSN WIHD: Evaluation: thank you - <https://forms.gle/7pt2ujwXpihdeDpbA>

01:57:04 Abby Beer: Thank you!!

01:57:16 Tech Support: 7 breakouts to choose from in 20 minutes. Join us!

01:57:26 Stacey: Thank you!

01:57:33 Tech Support: Thank you Dan! We appreciate you!

01:57:41 Yvette Goorevitch: Thanks Dan - inspiring kick off

01:58:06 Janice-Steven Vincenzo: Thank you! Great kick off!

01:58:11 Jennifer jennifer.brennan@cpwestchester.org: Thank you so much! Such a wonderful presentation!

01:58:29 Lucille Rossi, CSN WIHD: Evaluation: <https://forms.gle/7pt2ujwXpihdeDpbA>

01:59:06 Federation for Children with Special Needs: Thank you so much! As a parent and a professional, you show us what is possible when we don't lose hope.

01:59:30 Lucille Rossi, CSN WIHD: One of our sessions is on the topic of the indicators of success for transition.

01:59:39 Dan Habib: Thanks everyone! Glad to be with you today!
