

TRANSITION Workshop Series

For Families and Students with Disabilities in all Districts

Self-Determination

Wednesday, February 9, 2022

- Learn about the skills that allow individuals to make choices and plan their lives
- Explore the many aspects of self-determination, and their importance to the transition planning process
- Discover ways that individuals with disabilities can have a voice in planning their life after high school, and ensure that families, schools, and agencies are effectively supporting them

This workshop will be held virtually via Zoom from 7:00-8:30pm.
You must RSVP in order to get the link to participate.
Contact Dawn Kitz at dkitz@rboces.org or (845) 624-5833 to register.

Transition Workshops offered through Rockland BOCES and the Rockland Transition Consortium

The Rockland BOCES Student Services Division and the Rockland Transition Consortium are working to educate students and their families in preparing for and making transitions, linking families with resources for the transition from school to work and/or post-secondary programs, children's services to adult services, and home to the community at large.
