

Leadership Program

September 2024- June 2025.

Our Mission

To help people with developmental disabilities build community, confidence, and leadership skills.
LEAD by example, find your VOICE and take ACTION!.

This is the 2nd year Volunteer New York! and Westchester Institute of Human Development (WIHD), are collaborating to offer this 10-month leadership development program for young adults with developmental disabilities. The program provides accommodations for various learning needs in a small group cohort and requires participants to apply and be accepted into the program.

Brendan Klein and Patti Colombo, both graduates of Volunteer New York! Leadership Westchester will co-facilitate the leadership program September 2024- June 2025.

Highlights include interactive LEADERSHIP topics in:

- Goal Setting
- Self-Awareness
- Social Awareness
- Self- Management
- Communication Skills
- Teamwork
- Conflict Resolution
- Building Relationships
- Share & Lead Skill Building
- Capstone Leadership Project

Sessions will be held once a month, on a weekday, in person, in Westchester. The program will end with a celebration and graduation ceremony with family and friends.

There is no cost to participate, but it will require a commitment to attend all sessions.

Currently accepting referrals and applications, with limited openings.

Deadline to Apply June 30,2024
