

The Lower Hudson Special Education Task Force is pleased to present a Zoom webinar

College Acceptance Achieved: Empowering Students with Disabilities to Plan What Comes Next

Join us for an informative webinar on navigating the transition to college for students with disabilities. This session is designed for students with disabilities, parents, school staff, and college disability services professionals.

Our expert panel includes a former college counselor and disability specialist, school psychologist, and a parent attorney who will share practical steps for accessing accommodations in college. They will also discuss strategies to strengthen self-advocacy skills and how to help students secure the support they need for success in college.

Presenters:

Carin Horowitz, Director, Westchester County Office for People with Disabilities

Christina Sollecito, NYS Certified School Psychologist

Marion Walsh, Esq., The Advancement for Orchid Children PLLC

DATE: February 25, 2026

TIME: 6:00 p.m.
